

THE APARTHEID SYSTEM

GABRIEL LABROSSE
OTHARAN

PRESENTATION

- A system of racial segregation
- 1948–1991
- In south Africa

QUESTION

How did apartheid affect people's lives in South Africa ?

What apartheid really meant for millions of people.

How did it change their daily life, their rights, and their future?

SEPARATION EVERYWHERE

People were separated by race:

- different schools

- different buses and toilets

- different hospitals

- Black people needed a pass to move in the city

NO RIGHTS FOR BLACK PEOPLE

- They couldn't vote
- No access to good jobs
- They lived in poor areas
- No political voice

shanty towns

RESISTANCE AND HOPE

- The ANC protested against apartheid
- Mandela was arrested in 1962
- He stayed in prison for 27 years
- He became a symbol of peace and justice

SO HOW DID APARTHEID AFFECT PEOPLE'S LIVES?

Apartheid made life very hard for non-white people:

- Daily discrimination
- No rights or freedom
- Families divided
- But people like Mandela fought for justice, and they changed history

CONCLUSION

Apartheid was cruel and unfair.
It teaches us the importance of equality, respect, and freedom.
We must always fight against racism and injustice.
